

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1903-03-01

Letter from [John Muir] to [May] Morgan, [1903] Mar .

John Muir

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Muir, John, "Letter from [John Muir] to [May] Morgan, [1903] Mar ." (1903). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 2581.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/2581>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

March [1963]
Memo on BK, I have seen Stanley
The four are good enough to be printed for the public + Hepatica verse

Dear Miss Morgan

I ~~sincerely~~ ^{heartily} Thank You for your long good kind letters + verses on my Sierra Favorites The ~~River, the~~
+ ^A ~~Angel~~, Douglas Squirrel, + Tamias They might be made a little longer + perhaps you might improve them somewhat but they are good enough as they stand for any magazine far better than most we see nowadays, ^{so is the River.} The Angel, I am sure, you can improve. Tell about his dainty confiding manner, the foam bell eggs, the 769

stream tones in his song, the rainbow mist about his nest, etc. You will find a pretty full account of his life in "The Mountains of California", much fuller than in the "National Parks".
Anyhow go ahead as you are going out doors, wait & watch with love & nature will teach you the every way good to
you. It

I like the Hepatica ^{American} ~~verses~~ also. It is one of the first ^{flowers} I learned to love when a boy fresh from the daisies & bluebells of Scotland.
You are fortunate in your home in Oklahoma. Have never been there the world is so big. I enjoyed John Burrows good article in the March Atlantic, Wish I had time